

PROGRAMME
Roundtable on “Maritime Spatial Planning”
(in the frame of Year of the Gulf of Finland 2014)

in the frame of

XV International Environmental Forum “Baltic Sea Day”

Place of meeting: Hall Green 8 (Park Inn Pribaltiyskaya Hotel)

19 MARCH 2014, WEDNESDAY

Moderators: Dr. Anita Mäkinen, Finnish Transport Safety Agency

Mr. Andrey Lappo, JSC “Research and Design Institute of Urban Development”

9.00 -10.00 Registration of the participants

10.00–13.00 Morning session: MSP as a tool to balance human activities and the ecological features of the Baltic Sea

10.00–10.05 Opening of the round table

10.05-10.15 Welcome address by Dr. Anita Mäkinen, Mr. Andrey Lappo

Legal framework for MSP

10.15-10.30 The draft of the EU Directive on MSP

10.30-10.45 The draft of the Concept of the MSP law, Ms. Svetlana Mochalova, Ministry of regional development RF

10.45-11.00 Working Group Helcom/Vasab on MSP, Mr. Andrey Lappo, JSC “Research and Design Institute of Urban Development”

Large scale MSP exercises in the Baltic Sea – examples and tools

11.00-11.15 Environmental & Social Monitoring at Nord Stream – a success story setting the bar for future projects, Mr. Bruno Haelg, Nord Stream AG

11.30-12.00 Coffee-break

Large scale MSP exercises in the Baltic Sea – examples and tools, continues

12.00-12.15 Sankt-Petersburg – Largest Marine agglomeration in the Baltic Sea, Ms. Era Milenina, JSC “Research and Design Institute of Urban Development”/ Mr. Boris Usanov, St. Petersburg State University of Architecture and Civil Engineering

12.15-12.30 Toward sustainable consolidation of human activities and the marine nature values using marine spatial planning as a tool (TOPCONS – project), Ms. Kirsi Kostamo, SYKE/Ms. Marina Orlova, Zoological Institute RAS

12.30-12.45 Opportunities to streamline the integrated use of the Neva Bay (environmental aspect), Dr. Vladimir Shigulskiy, Mr. Vladimir Shuiskiy, LLC “Eco-Express-Service”

12.45-13.00 Instrumentation of MSP on the example of a pilot plan for the Russian part of the GF, Ms.

Yulia Viazilova, JSC "Research and Design Institute of Urban Development"

13.00-13.15 Marine spatial planning tool for the conservation of marine ecosystem in the eastern Baltic Sea, Riikka Venesjärvi, University of Helsinki

13.30-14.30 Lunch

14.30-18.00 Afternoon session: More MSP activities needed to solve the Baltic Sea problems- ways forward

14.30-14.50 Human activities, Mr. Wojciech Wawrzynski, ICES

14.50-15.05 Eutrophication , Mr. Mika Raateoja, SYKE

15.05-15.20 Fisheries, Mr. Denis Belyaev, North-West Territorial Department of the Federal Agency for Fishery

15.20-15.35 Shipping and MSP in the Russian Federation , Ministry of transport RF (tcb)

16.05-16:30 Coffee-break

16:30-16.45 Results of a 10-year cycle of Geological Environment Monitoring the Gulf of Finland and the main tasks in connection with the problems of spatial planning for 2014, Mr. Aleksandr Rybalko, JSC "Sevmorgeo"

16.45-17.00 Social, economical and ecological aspects of the SPB complex of protective structures of flooding, Ms. Roza Mihailenko, FGE "Directorate of the Protection Barrier Complex of the Ministry of Regional Development of the Russian Federation"

17.00-17.15 Influence of the Leningrad Nuclear Power Plant on the environmental protection and ecological safety, Mr. Valentin Oleynik, Affiliate of JSC "Concern Rosenergoatom" – "Leningrad Nuclear Power Plant"

17.15 -17.30 Marine geological research in the Eastern Gulf of Finland – marine landscapes and geodiversity, Ms. Daria Ruabchuk, A.P. Karpinsky Russian Research Geological Institute (VSEGEI)

Ongoing MSP projects

17.30-17.40 GAP2 - Maritime Spatial Planning in the Gulf of Finland – connecting science, stakeholders and policy, Mr. Robert Aps, University of Tartu, Estonian Marine Institute

17.40-17.50 PartiSeapate project, Mr. Jacek Zaucha, Maritime Institute in Gdansk

17.50 -18.00 Baltwise MSP
Dr. Anita Mäkinen, Finnish Transport Safety Agency

Discussion, conclusions and wrapping-up